

Ski Race Coach Vacancy

Edinburgh University Snowsports Club is a member of the University of Edinburgh Sports Union. The club competes in both BUCS and non-BUCS competitions throughout the year. The club is lead by a committee of 13 students, who organise training, trips and social events throughout the year. The club is currently seeking a ski race coach to provide coaching support to our team members at training sessions and in competitions.

Term: September 2019 - May 2020, with potential for extension

Schedule: 1 evening session/week, plus competition dates

Pay: TBC dependent on experience and qualification

Location: Primarily Edinburgh/Glasgow based

Responsibilities:

- Develop a structured coaching plan that incorporates both entry-level and performance racing
- Support athletes at weekly training sessions, and during competitions
- Liaise with team captains to plan a programme that covers dryslope, indoor and mountain training as required depending on the upcoming competitions
- Conduct regular video analysis sessions to aid athletes' understanding and development
- Contribute to creating a positive culture towards development and performance in all sessions

Person Specification:

- Possess a minimum of UKCP Level 2 Alpine coach qualification (or equivalent)
- Outdoor/sports first aid qualified
- Experience of conducting video analysis would be highly beneficial
- Experience or knowledge of university snowsports formats would be highly beneficial
- Proven interpersonal/communication skills
- Must be approachable, with a can-do attitude!

Benefits:

- Competitive pay, dependent on experience
- Reasonable travel allowance paid
- Membership of UoE's Coaching and Volunteering Academy, providing access to a range of workshops and CPD funding
- Access to unique benefits with the club's sponsors
- Coach uniform package
- Access to the University of Edinburgh Sport & Exercise facilities on a student membership rate

There is no set closing date for this role, as we will be reviewing applications on an ongoing basis. Please direct applications, with CV and covering letter, to

info@eussc.com

Should you have any questions about the role, please feel free to contact Fraser Menzies on the above email in the first instance

THE UNIVERSITY of EDINBURGH
Sports Union

Freestyle Snowsports Coach Vacancy

Edinburgh University Snowsports Club is a member of the University of Edinburgh Sports Union. The club competes in both BUCS and non-BUCS competitions throughout the year. The club is lead by a committee of 13 students, who organise training, trips and social events throughout the year. The club is currently seeking a freestyle coach to provide coaching support to our team members at training sessions and in competitions.

Term: September 2019 - May 2020, with potential for extension

Schedule: 1 evening session/week, plus competition dates

Pay: TBC dependent on experience and qualification

Location: Primarily Edinburgh/Glasgow based

Responsibilities:

- Develop a structured coaching plan that incorporates both entry-level and performance freestyle snowsports
- Support athletes at weekly training sessions, and during competitions
- Liaise with team captains to plan a programme that covers dryslope, indoor and mountain training as required depending on the upcoming competitions
- Conduct regular video analysis sessions to aid athletes' understanding and development
- Contribute to creating a positive culture towards development and performance in all sessions
- Potential to contribute to freeride coaching*

Person Specification:

- Possess a minimum of UKCP Level 1 Freeski/Snowboard coach qualification (or equivalent), although UKCP Level 2 qualification would be highly desirable
- Outdoor/sports first aid qualified
- Experience of conducting video analysis would be highly beneficial
- Experience or knowledge of university snowsports formats would be highly beneficial
- Freeride experience would be a bonus*
- Proven interpersonal/communication skills
- Must be approachable, with a can-do attitude!

Benefits:

- Competitive pay, dependent on experience
- Reasonable travel allowance paid
- Membership of UoE's Coaching and Volunteering Academy, providing access to a range of workshops and CPD funding
- Access to unique benefits with the club's sponsors
- Coach uniform package
- Access to the University of Edinburgh Sport & Exercise facilities on a student membership rate

THE UNIVERSITY of EDINBURGH
Sports Union

Freestyle Snowsports Coach Vacancy

Note: Applicants with additional experience in freeride snowsports would be most welcome, as the club is aiming to engage more with events such as the Scottish Freedom Series. If relevant, applicants are encouraged to note this in their application as there may be additional coaching opportunities in this area.

There is no set closing date for this role, as we will be reviewing applications on an ongoing basis. Please direct applications, with CV and covering letter, to info@eussc.com

Should you have any questions about the role, please feel free to contact Fraser Menzies on the above email in the first instance

THE UNIVERSITY of EDINBURGH
Sports Union

Snowboard Coach Vacancy

Edinburgh University Snowsports Club is a member of the University of Edinburgh Sports Union. The club competes in both BUCS and non-BUCS competitions throughout the year. The club is lead by a committee of 13 students, who organise training, trips and social events throughout the year. The club is currently seeking a snowboard coach to provide coaching support to our team members at training sessions and in competitions.

Term: September 2019 - May 2020, with potential for extension

Schedule: 1 evening session/week, plus competition dates

Pay: TBC dependent on experience and qualification

Location: Primarily Edinburgh/Glasgow based

Responsibilities:

- Develop a structured coaching plan that incorporates both entry-level and performance freestyle snowsports
- Support athletes at weekly training sessions, and during competitions
- Liaise with team captains to plan a programme that covers dryslope, indoor and mountain training as required depending on the upcoming competitions
- Conduct regular video analysis sessions to aid athletes' understanding and development
- Contribute to creating a positive culture towards development and performance in all sessions
- Aid our vision of increasing snowboarding participation and retention through the delivery of high quality sessions

Person Specification:

- Possess a minimum of UKCP Level 1 Snowboard coach qualification (or equivalent), although UKCP Level 2 qualification would be highly desirable
- Instructor qualifications would also be considered
- Outdoor/sports first aid qualified
- Experience of conducting video analysis would be highly beneficial
- Experience or knowledge of university snowsports formats would be highly beneficial
- Proven interpersonal/communication skills
- Must be approachable, with a can-do attitude!

Benefits:

- Competitive pay, dependent on experience
- Reasonable travel allowance paid
- Membership of UoE's Coaching and Volunteering Academy, providing access to a range of workshops and CPD funding
- Access to unique benefits with the club's sponsors
- Coach uniform package
- Access to the University of Edinburgh Sport & Exercise facilities on a student membership rate

THE UNIVERSITY of EDINBURGH
Sports Union

Snowboard Coach Vacancy

Note: We are also advertising for a freestyle snowsports coach (to cover both freeski and snowboard). Applicants with additional experience of freeski coaching are encouraged to apply for both the freestyle and snowboard coach roles, as they could be combined for a suitably experienced applicant.

There is no set closing date for this role, as we will be reviewing applications on an ongoing basis. Please direct applications, with CV and covering letter, to info@eussc.com

Should you have any questions about the role, please feel free to contact Fraser Menzies on the above email in the first instance

THE UNIVERSITY of EDINBURGH
Sports Union