

INCLUSION OFFICER – WOMEN IN SPORT

This document should provide information on the volunteer role of Inclusion Officer – LGBT+ Students. If you have any queries with regards to this position please email Millie.Doherty@ed.ac.uk

Role Title:	Inclusion Officer – Women in Sport
Responsible to:	Sports Union Vice President (Inclusion) Sports Union Inclusion Committee Sports Union Membership
Requirements to run:	Be a matriculated student of the University during time in role. Identify as a female student.
Recommended skills/experience:	An understanding of students who identify as female needs and wants with regards to sport at University, and the barriers to participation. Strong communication, organisational, and planning skills. Pro-active and enthusiastic individual who has the ability to work unsupervised and as part of a team. Must be committed, and able to contribute time to the role. Dedication to the improvement of the inclusivity of the University's sporting offer.
Key responsibilities:	Represent students who identify as female by sitting on Sports Union Inclusion Committee. Analyse key Sports Union data to build an awareness of underrepresented groups, and intersectionality of these. Conduct research into barriers to accessing university sport for women students through engagement with women students both involved and not involved in sport, as well as club leaders and inclusion officers. Lead events designed to engage female students across the campus, and promote opportunities to access sport that may be of interest to female students. Liaise with appropriate University departments, and external partners, to best represent the needs and wants of female students.
Time Commitment:	10-12 hours per academic month. Be able to attend Sports Union Inclusion Committee meetings.