7. Election Procedure

7.1. Eligibility of Voters

Only matriculated students at The University of Edinburgh who are members of the Sports Union are eligible to vote in the Sports Union elections for the Vice President positions.

7.2. Method of Voting

As prescribed by the Sports Union Executive and General Committees, the method of voting in all elections is that of the single transferable vote. This means that voters are allowed to record their order of preference by number when voting.

8. Complaints, Conduct and Appeals

8.1. Election Complaints

8.1.1. Submitting an Election Complaint

Any student who wishes to complain about an issue relating to EUSU elections (including the conduct of candidates) must do so via e-mail to the Returning Officer.

Complaints may not be made anonymously, but will be handled confidentially where possible; effective investigation may not be possible without revealing the identity of the complainant.

To be considered as an election complaint, a complaint must be submitted within 24 hours of the alleged incident having occurred, or come to light, and no later than one hour before voting closes in the relevant election period.

8.1.2 Handling of Election Complaints

On receipt of an election complaint, the Returning Officer will consider the evidence provided and may seek to gather additional evidence in order to reach a decision on how to proceed.

The Returning Officer will provide a written response to the complainant within one working day of receipt of the complaint (complaints submitted after 1600 on a weekday, or over the weekend, will not be received until 0930 on the next working day).

The response will provide details of the evidence considered when reaching a decision and information about any actions already taken, or to be taken, in the future to address any issues raised in the complaint.

The Returning Officer may find that there is no action to be taken. Where there is evidence of misconduct by a candidate for election, the Returning Officer may take action under section 8.2.2 of these regulations. The Returning Officer may also refer a conduct issue involving a candidate or student to the University for consideration under the Code of Student Conduct.
8.1.3. Complaint Review

Where a complainant is dissatisfied with the response they have received to their complaint, they may request a review of the handling of the complaint by the Returning Officer. In order to request a review, the complainant must send a written statement explaining why they feel their complaint has been improperly handled, or what new information has come to light, to the Returning Officer.

Any such request must be submitted within 24 hours of issue of the original response to the complaint.

The Returning Officer will provide a written response to the complainant within one working day of receipt of the complaint review request (requests submitted after 1600 on a weekday, or over the weekend, will not be received until 0930 on the next working day).

The Returning Officer will either confirm the validity of the original response, or provide details of any further action taken, or to be taken, in the future to address any issues raised in the complaint.

The Returning Officer’s response is final.

8.2. Conduct of Candidates

8.2.1. Misconduct

An investigation into a complaint against an election candidate may provide evidence of misconduct by the candidate. Examples of such misconduct include:

- Violation of any part of these Regulations
- Bribery
- Multiple voting
- Interference with the actual voting
- Conspiracy by the candidate acting in concert with others to commit any of the offences mentioned in (b) to (d)
- Any offence listed in section 12 of the University of Edinburgh’s Code of Student Conduct, if committed during the Campaign Period (see section 3.2. of these Regulations)

Candidates are regarded by this procedure as responsible for the conduct of their campaign teams; candidates may, therefore, be subject to conduct investigation and potential sanctions if a member of their campaign team commits an act of electoral misconduct.

8.2.2 Sanctions

Where there is evidence of misconduct, the Returning Officer will decide whether one of the following actions should be taken and may apply one or more of sanctions listed below:

- Verbal Warning
- Written Warning
- Removal of Printing Allowance
- Confiscation of Campaign Materials
- Removal of online publicity
- Make a retraction statement
- Exclusion from the Hustings Debate

8.2.3. Relationship with the University of Edinburgh Code of Student Conduct

Where a candidate is suspected of having breached the University’s Code of Student Conduct, the Returning Officer may refer the matter to the University for consideration under that Code.

If the offence took place during the course of the Campaign Period, the Returning Officer may also apply a sanction under section 8.2.2 of these Regulations.

Where EUSU receives a complaint or report of a potential breach of the University’s Code of Student Conduct by a student who is not an election candidate during the course of the Campaign Period, the matter may be referred to the University for consideration under that Code.

8.3. Appeals Against Sanctions

8.3.1. Grounds for Appeal

Where a candidate has been issued with a sanction under section 8.2.2 of these regulations, they have the right to appeal against this. Appeals will only be accepted if they meet one or both of the following grounds:

- Relevant new information is provided, which for good reason was not available to the returning officer when their decision was taken;
- Evidence of irregular procedure or improper conduct in the election or in the investigation of the candidate’s conduct.

8.3.2 Submitting an Appeal

Where a candidate wishes to appeal, they should send an email stating their intention to appeal to the Returning Officer before the end of the voting period. Emails must be sent from their University student email account.

The candidate must then submit their full appeal in writing to the Returning Officer within 24 hours of stating their intention to appeal. The full appeal should include the following information:

- Details of the decision the candidate is appealing against
- On what grounds the candidate is basing their appeal (see 8.3.1.)
- An explanation of how the appeal meets this ground/s
- What outcome the candidate is seeking as a result of the appeal

8.3.3 Consideration of Appeals

When an appeal is received, the Returning Officer will collect the available evidence and submit this for consideration by the Elections Appeals Committee. The Elections Appeals Committee consists of a minimum of three external members.

The Elections Appeals Committee will communicate their decision to the candidate within five working days of receipt of the full appeal, and will provide a written explanation as to how they reached their decision. The Committee may call for a hearing where applicable. The decision will be one of the following:
• The appeal is not upheld; any sanctions stand
• The appeal is upheld; any sanctions are removed
• The appeal is upheld; any sanctions are reduced or varied
