

PRESIDENT

Introduction

The role of Sports Union President is essential to the smooth operations of the Sports Union and its member Clubs. No two days in the role will be the same so an applicant must have a wide variety of skills and be prepared to develop their skills quickly and effectively. You must lead on the creation, development and delivery of Sports Union policy as well as general activities. A good President will be a strong advocate for Sport and Physical Activity and specifically of the Sports Union itself. Good organisation, strong communication skills and a strong public image are essential to the role. You will handle the planning and management of a large budget so financial management skills are essential to the role. You must be able to lead fellow students, while also working as an equal part of the EUSU staff team, and coordinating and delegating to the Executive Committee. This truly is a diverse, yet highly enjoyable role, offering fantastic experience straight out of university.

Job Role

The primary responsibility of the Sports Union President is to fulfil the following roles. It is important to note that special projects, such as manifesto promises, make up a small portion of the President's time (please refer to % on time in left column). A President must fulfil these basic roles in order for the Sports Union to succeed. A candidate should not apply for the role unless they believe they can fulfil the following, finding time to develop the Sports Union out with this business as usual work.

Advocacy, Engagement &
Partnerships.
