A. EUSU CONSTITUTION

1. TITLE

1.1 This organisation shall be called the Edinburgh University Sports Union (the Sports Union or EUSU).

1.2 Unless otherwise stated, all references to “student” throughout shall mean “University of Edinburgh” student.

2. AIMS

The aims of EUSU shall be -

2.1 To maintain high performance in the British Universities and Colleges Sport (BUCS) league table.

2.2 To increase and widen participation across the University of Edinburgh student body, and break down potential barriers to students enjoying and partaking in physical activity. This includes our focus on equity across all sporting activity. We will work to ensure that no one is discriminated against for any reason, including but not limited to, gender, gender reassignment, race, disability, age, religious or political belief, sexual orientation, social background, ethnic origin, language, marital or civil partnership status or pregnancy.

2.3 To improve the awareness amongst University of Edinburgh students of the positive impact that physical activity has on physical and mental health through workshops, guest speakers and recreational sport.

2.4 To expand our Intramural Sport programme to include a wider variety of sports and reach more students and staff at the University.

2.5 To administer, coordinate and control the income and expenditure of the Sports Union.

2.6 To encourage club, coaching and officiating development within the student body through the structured and staff supported Coaching & Volunteering Academy.

3. MEMBERSHIP

3.1 Membership of EUSU shall be defined as any individual who has paid their EUSU membership through the EUSU membership system. There shall be 2 categories of membership to EUSU

1. Student Membership – available to all matriculated student of the University of Edinburgh.
2. Non-UoE Student Membership – available to Alumni, Staff, students of other institutions and community memberships. Non-UoE Student Membership applications are subject to Law 3.5. Non-UoE students must register and pay for membership through the EUSU membership system.

3.2 When representing the University in BUCS Competitions, club members are required to follow the BUCS rules and regulations on eligibility.

For all other fixtures and competitions, members are entitled to represent the University at the discretion of each Club, subject to relevant National Governing Bodies’ rules and regulations.

3.3 All members are required to join Edinburgh University Sports Union prior to joining any Edinburgh University Sports Union Club or taking part in Intramural sport. The membership fee will be £7.50 for Student Membership and £15 for Non-UoE Student Membership. Any increase will be approved annually at the AGM and will be in effect from 1st August.

3.4 A Club member shall be classed as any member of the Club who has paid their membership fees to the Club and EUSU. In any disputes of Club membership the Executive Committee shall have the final say.

3.5 Each Sports Club is permitted to register Non-UoE Student members as defined in Law 3.1.2, up to 20% of the Club or Team's total Student membership.

3.6 All members are subject to the Constitution and conditions and regulations prescribed therein.

4. ADMINISTRATION

4.1 The Sports Union shall be an autonomous organisation, the Constitution and any amendments of which are however, subject to the approval of the University Court, which has the power to require changes in the Constitution. The following office bearers shall be authorised to represent EUSU in connection with any legal proceedings raised by or against EUSU: the President and the most senior member of staff.

4.2 The general government of the Sports Union shall be in the hands of the General Committee. The General Committee shall consist of the members of the Executive Committee (see 4.3) and two representatives of each member Club; these members shall have voting rights (only one vote per club, Section 5.5 withstanding). The President of EUSU (or their nominee from the Executive Committee), shall chair the meetings of the General Committee. (See Law 5.5).

4.3 The Executive Committee shall consist of the President (Chairperson), the Honorary Secretary, the Honorary Treasurer, the Vice President (Inclusion), the Vice President (Intramural Sport), the Intramural Sport Coordinator, the Media Officer, the Wellbeing Officer, the Partnerships & Alumni Officer, and the Inclusion Officer, all elected at the A.G.M. Only those members may vote. The Director of Sport & Exercise (or their nominee), the Senior Treasurer, the Head of Sport and/or the Sports Programme Manager and up to three other senior advisors (invited onto the committee by the President, each year) shall be in attendance, but shall have no voting rights.

4.4 The Inclusion Committee shall be chaired by the Vice-President Inclusion, and will consist of student representatives from the following demographics / groups: international; ethnic minorities; LGBT+; Postgraduate; widening access; students with disability; women in sport. This will provide a collective voice to drive forward our unwavering commitment to inclusion within sport at Edinburgh.

4.5 The Finance Committee shall consist of the President, the Honorary Treasurer (Chairperson), the Honorary Secretary, the Partnerships & Alumni Officer and eight ordinary members, who shall be elected by the Executive Committee before the start of the first academic semester (see 6.3.4). Nominees will be elected by the Executive through an application-based procedure. The Senior Treasurer shall be in attendance, but shall have no voting rights.

4.6 The Blues and Colours Committee shall consist of the President (Chairperson), the Honorary Secretary, the Vice President (Inclusion), the Vice President (Intramural Sport), the most senior member of staff (or their nominee), the Director of Sport & Exercise (or their nominee), three graduates and three ordinary members. The graduates should have had a past interest in the Sports Union and shall be recommended to the Executive Committee by the President, each year. The ordinary members must be matriculated students, members of the Sports Union and not from the same club as each other.

4.7 The Intramural Sport committee shall consist of the Vice President of Intramural Sport (Chairperson), the Intramural Sport Coordinator, the Sports Coordinator for Intramural Sport and Intramural Sport Officers. Membership shall be made up of one person from each Intramural Sport.

- 4.8 The Awards Committee shall consist of the President (Chairperson), the Vice President (Inclusion), the Vice President (Intramural Sport), the Honorary Treasurer, the Honorary Secretary, the most senior member of staff (or their nominee), the Director of Sport & Exercise (or their nominee). Apart from the list of award winners, no minutes of the Committee meetings shall be taken. This committee will meet to recommend winners of the SU Ball Awards and the trophy Blues and Colours Awards, but not the Blues or Colours themselves.
- 4.9 Each member Club shall have its own Club Committee which shall be responsible for matters pertaining to its Club subject to the overall policies of the Sports Union and the University of Edinburgh. The composition of these Committees shall be in accordance with the individual Club's Constitutions. The Executive Committee must approve proposals for changes in a member Club's Constitution.
- 4.10 All members must follow the University's Code of Conduct, and will be disciplined in accordance with University policy. When necessary, the President may convene a Disciplinary Committee, who will follow the disciplinary procedures laid out in the bye-laws. When no such references can be made to University or EUSU policy, members of EUSU will be subject to the complaints procedure and sanctions laid out by Edinburgh University Students Association.

5. MEETINGS

- 5.1 The Annual General meeting shall be held in March or April. All Student Members (See Law 3.1.1.), of the Sports Union shall be eligible to attend and vote. The quorum shall be 100. Notice of the meeting shall be circulated to Club officials by the Sports Union at least three weeks before the date of the meeting. The President shall be Chairperson, failing that the Executive Committee shall nominate a Chairperson. Each EUSU Club is required to send at least 2 representatives to the A.G.M.
- 5.2 All motions and constitutional changes must be submitted in writing to the Sports Union at least two weeks before the A.G.M., signed by the members proposing and seconding each motion who must also attend the A.G.M. to speak to their motion. These motions and constitutional changes must be circulated to Clubs by the Sports Union at least one week before the A.G.M.
- 5.3 Special General Meetings may be called by the Executive Committee or on a requisition signed by any twenty student members of the Sports Union being presented to the Honorary Secretary. At S.G.Ms no business except that stated by the Executive Committee or contained in the requisition may be considered; such business and notices of the meeting shall be circulated to Club officials by the Sports Union at least one week before the meeting. The constitution and procedure of the meeting shall be as foran A.G.M.
- 5.4 The General Committee shall meet at least three times in each semester. It shall transact the ordinary business of the Sports Union and receive reports for approval from the Executive and Finance Committee. Any such appeals or motions to the General Committee should be submitted in writing to the Honorary Secretary at least three days before the date of the meeting. The Chairperson shall have a casting and deliberative vote. The quorum shall be 30. Any Club missing a General Committee meeting throughout the year without written explanation to the Honorary Secretary will receive a fine as per the Incentives & Fines Policy.
- 5.5 The Executive Committee shall consider and make recommendations regarding policy and procedures to the General Committee and carry out such executive functions as are necessary as well as adjudicate upon appeals pertaining to any business of the Finance Committee. The full Executive Committee shall meet no less than three times a semester. The quorum shall be seven. The Chairperson shall have both a deliberative and acasting vote.
- 5.6 The President, Honorary Treasurer, Senior Treasurer, and most senior member of staff shall draw up the Annual Budget in consultation with all relevant staff and senior advisors for approval by the Finance Committee and ExecutiveCommittee.
- 5.7 The Finance Committee shall normally meet fortnightly during semesters, or as deemed necessary. The quorum shall be seven. The Chairperson shall have a casting and a deliberative vote. The Committee may invite such other persons as it wishes to be present for any particular item of business. During the period between the last Finance Committee meeting of the summer term and the convening of the new Finance Committee in the following financial year, the President, the Senior Treasurer and the Honorary Treasurer (if available) shall take pertinent financial decisions.

6. ELECTION OF OFFICE BEARERS AND COMMITTEES

- 6.1 There shall be an Honorary President and up to fifteen Honorary Vice Presidents who shall be appointed annually by the Executive Committee at its last meeting. These office bearers shall be eligible for re-election.

- 6.7 There shall be no limit to the number of nominations for the positions of the Finance or Executive Committees. Every student member of the Sports Union is eligible to stand in the elections for such positions. No more than a total of two members of any member Club may be elected to the Finance or Executive Committees. If a member Club reaches the maximum quota of two representatives, all other nominations from that Club will no longer be considered. The exception to this shall be the situation in which a disqualification would result in no candidates running.
- 6.8 The incumbent President shall act as Chairperson for all proceedings of the election period, for all Executive Committee Positions including that of the role of President. The most senior member of staff shall act as the Returning Officer for all proceedings of the election period.
- 6.9 The Executive Committee holds the right to suspend the role of the President as Chairperson in an election year cycle if the incumbent President is personally involved or believed to have a vested interest in the outcome. This shall remain at the discretion of the Executive Committee.
- 6.10 Election of the President shall take place by University wide online voting during the week preceding and day of the Annual General Meeting. Only matriculated students will be eligible to vote online. The results are to be announced at the Annual General Meeting. Presidential candidates shall be elected by a single transferable vote system following the correct University online protocol. Nominations will close fourteen days prior to the Annual General Meeting.
- 6.11 Elections of the remaining Executive Committee shall take place by online voting during the week preceding and day of the Annual General Meeting. Only Sports Union members who are matriculated students will be eligible to vote online. The results are to be announced at the Annual General Meeting. Candidates shall be elected by a single transferable vote system following the correct University online protocol. Nominations will close fourteen days prior to the Annual General Meeting.
- 6.12 Where no such nomination has been submitted for any particular post, all Clubs will be informed and subsequent nominations for that post may be submitted up to one week before the A.G.M.
- 6.13 Presidential candidates will attend a Question and Answer session preceding the AGM.

6.14 The Office Bearers of the Sports Union Executive Committee shall take office on the 1st of July each year and remain in office for twelve months. The month of June will act as the handover period between incoming and retiring committees. The ordinary members of the Finance and Blues & Colours shall take office upon election and remain in office until the 30th of June.

6.15 The General Committee shall have the power to fill any vacancies arising during the year in any Committee. The electoral procedure shall be through an online vote.

7. DUTIES OF OFFICE BEARERS

7.1. Unless otherwise stated in this constitution, the role of all other EUSU Officer Bearers is to be decided at the discretion of the sitting Executive Committee.

7.2. The Dismissal of Office Bearers: In the first instance a letter of warning will be issued by the President to the committee member. If the Office Bearer does not adhere to the written warning, then any Office Bearer may be removed from office by a majority vote of the Executive Committee.

8. STAFF

8.1. The Sports Union President shall have overall responsibility of all matters pertaining to the Sports Union and shall be answerable to the General Committee of EUSU.

8.2. Staff of the Sports Union are employed by the University and must adhere to the University's employment rules and regulations.

8.3. There shall be a Staff Committee which shall be responsible for all matters pertaining to staff in the Sports Union. The Committee shall consist of the President (Chairperson), the Honorary Secretary, the Honorary Treasurer, the most senior member of staff, the Senior Treasurer, the longest serving senior advisor and the Director of Sport & Exercise. The Committee shall meet as required to discuss all staff developments.

9. MEMBER CLUBS

4. SPORTS UNION POLICIES

4.1 In addition to the Constitution and Bye-Laws, all EUSU members and member clubs must adhere to all EUSU policies.

4.2 All of these policies must be made available on the Sports Union website. These policies will be managed by relevant members of staff with oversight from the Executive Committee. Should a member or member club not adhere to any of the criteria laid out in the Constitution and Bye Laws, disciplinary action will be carried out by either the Disciplinary Committee or Executive Committee.

5. REPORTING AND INVESTIGATION PROCEDURES

5.1 Reporting Procedures

- 5..1.1. As outlined in the EUSU Code of Conduct, allegations of member, coach, participant or staff misconduct may be reported to any member of EUSU staff. This may be done verbally; to official staff email; or through the Incident Report Form. An allegation received through any of the aforementioned routes will be referred to as the Report.
- 5..1.2. Members are encouraged to report any behaviour or situation which makes any Sports Union member, or the wider community feel uncomfortable. This may be relating to, but is certainly not limited to, Racism, including microaggressions; Ethnicity or national origin; Sexism; Disability; Sexual orientation; Religion or beliefs; Gender identification and reassignment; Pregnancy or maternity; Age; Marriage or civil partnership; Socio-economic background.
- 5..1.3. Reports will be treated confidentially by the Sports Union President, in conjunction with the Sports Programme Manager and Head of Sport. If possible, frontline resolution will be pursued. However, where appropriate, Reports will be escalated to the University of Edinburgh Student Conduct team.

5.2 Investigatory and Disciplinary Procedures

- 5.2.1 Following the receipt of a Report, and if appropriate and safe for all involved, the Sports Union President, in consultation with the Head of Sport and/or the Sports Programme Manager, may invite the Reporting Party and Respondent separately to meet informally to discuss the Report and agree on appropriate action to resolve the situation.
- 5.2.2 If the issue cannot be resolved locally, or this is deemed inappropriate by the staff member, it may be advised that the Reporting Party request an Investigation or escalate this via the University Complaints Handling Procedure. Full details of the EUSU Investigatory procedure are outlined in the EUSU Code of Conduct.
- 5.2.3 When initiating an investigation into an allegation of misconduct, the Sports Union President, in consultation with the Sports Programme Manager and Head of Sport, may consider precautionary suspension of the Respondent. Suspension may be carried out if: the allegation suggests that the Respondent may be a danger to others/themselves, the person is subject of a misconduct allegation, has had a criminal charge accusation or is the subject of a police investigation. Any Respondent suspended can make an in-person or written appeal of their suspension to the Sports Union President within five working days of suspension.
- 5.2.4 In the event of an Investigation, the Sports Union President, supported by the Head of Sport and Sports Programme Manager, may request evidence or to interview the Respondent, the Reporting Party or any other relevant person. As soon as practicable, striving to be within three working days of receipt of the Report, the Sports Union President will write to the Respondent to provide details of the alleged misconduct. Any individual attending an interview as part of an investigation has the right to be accompanied and/or represented by a member of the University community, including a staff or relevant health or wellbeing specialist.
- 5.2.5 If the Respondent admits responsibility or if the Sports Union President is satisfied that the allegations are well-founded, then disciplinary action may be taken.
- 5.2.6 If Disciplinary Action is deemed necessary, potential disciplinary penalties include, but are not limited to:
  - Education - mandatory courses or workshops to be attended, written apology required.
  - Probation - regular monitoring of behaviour (max. 3 months)
  - Reparation - fines (with no upward limit), restoration of cost for damage caused.
  - Suspension – temporary hold placed on membership and involvement in activity/privileges
  - Exclusion – permanently terminate membership and involvement in EUSU activity

- 5.2.7 Both the Reporting Party and the Respondent are encouraged to contact The Advice Place, run by Edinburgh University Students' Association, for advice about the student discipline procedure, provided they are students of the University. Support for student welfare, of both the Reporting and Respondent parties, may be provided by the University Student Counselling service, Chaplaincy Listening Service and The Advice Place, provided they are students of the University.
- 5.2.8 Following the conclusion of an Investigation, the Respondent will have the right to appeal any decision within 10 working days, as outlined in the EUSU Code of Conduct.
- 5.2.9 Following an Investigation, the Sports Union President holds the right to suspend individuals from the Sports Union and/or its member clubs.
- 5.2.10 Clubs may suspend a member on grounds of misconduct. The member(s) in question will have the right to appeal a club's decision to the Sports Union President. Clubs are encouraged to consult with the Sports Union President prior to any suspension decisions.
- 5.2.11 If a club is to suspend a member, they must inform the Sports Union President and/or the Head of Sport or Sports Programme Manager.

6. WARNINGS AND CARDS

- 6.1 Clubs that breach any regulation as laid out in the Constitution and Bye-Laws may be issued with a Green Card or a Yellow Card at the discretion of a majority vote of the Executive Committee.
- 6.2 Receipt of a Green Card will result in the behaviour of a Club being monitored by the Executive Committee until a time when the Executive believes the causal issue has been resolved. Failure to resolve the issue, within a timeline set by the Executive Committee, will result in an automatic Yellow Card. The Receipt of two Green Cards in an academic year will result in the issuing of a Yellow Card.
- 6.3 Receipt of a Yellow Card will result in a probation year, from the date of issue. During a probation year the Executive Committee may monitor and withhold any and all facets of Club activity as they deem fit.
- 6.4 The Executive Committee reserves the right to issue punishment or fine, upon receipt of a Yellow Card. A Club issued with a punishment or fine with a Yellow Card will have the right of appeal to the Executive Committee.
- 6.5 If a Club does not resolve the situation which caused them to receive a Yellow Card in their probation year they will be relegated in Club Status, as noted in Law 9. This shall be at the discretion of majority vote of the Executive Committee.
- 6.6 A Yellow Card will expire after the probation year if the Executive Committee deems the situation to have been resolved. The Sports Union Administrator will keep a record of Green Cards and Yellow Cards for the sake of continuity.

7. BLUES, HALF BLUES AND COLOURS

- 7.1 Blues, Half Blues, Cameron Blue of the Year, Colours and the McTernan Colour of the Year shall be recommended by the Blues and Colours Committee. These awards shall be presented annually at the Blues and Colours Dinner.
